Jury Dates: (exact date to be determined)

Review process:

The Standards Committee is composed of individuals who are required to have at least 10 years of artisan/craft experience, and includes the Market Manager as a voting member of the committee. The committee meets twice a year to review work of applicants; periodic reviews at the Market will be conducted by the Standards Committee to insure consistent quality. Notification regarding approval will be made by mail or email.

Each piece of work is handled and scrutinized carefully by every member of the committee. Work made from pre-assembled commercial kits is not acceptable. A very high degree of skill and competence must be evident. Small details are considered. Photographs, resumes and artists' statements are welcomed and reviewed. Open discussion is held and experts in the medium are consulted. An artisan's emerging potential is also considered. Each committee member then scores each entry using the ballot shown below:
