Montgomery County Youth Recognized at Annual Dixie National Sale of Junior Champions

STATE FAIRGROUNDS, Miss. – This year, 1,225 4-H and FFA members across Mississippi participated in the Dixie National Junior Round-Up Livestock Shows, showing 2,084 head of livestock. These students competed for the opportunity to participate in the 55th annual Sale of Junior Champions. The Sale of Junior Champions, one of the highlight events of the Dixie National Livestock Show and Rodeo, is an auction where livestock exhibitors winning Champion and Reserve Champion in the Junior Round-Up Market Divisions sell their animals and scholarships are awarded.

“As the state’s number one economic driver as well as our largest industry and largest employer, agriculture is key to solving Mississippi’s workforce development challenges and getting more young people involved in work opportunities. I strongly believe our ag and youth livestock programs through 4-H and FFA are key. These programs are the best youth and workforce development programs in the state,” said Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce Andy Gipson. “The Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce recognizes the hard work and dedication of these young people. They are our future leaders. Thousands participated in the Dixie National Junior Round-Up Livestock shows, and at the Sale of Junior Champions, we celebrated the best of the best. I am proud of all the students from across our great state who worked hard all year to raise these animals and show at Dixie National. Congratulations to our 2024 winners and scholarship recipients.”

During the Sale of Junior Champions, several student members of the Montgomery County 4-H were recognized for their achievements. Hayes Henderson, Grand Champion of the Division 5 Market Lamb Show, Champion of the Mississippi Bred Division 2 Market Lamb Show, Champion of the Division 4 Market Lamb Show, Grand Champion of the Light Mediumweight Market Goat Show and Reserve Grand Champion of the Heavyweight Market Goat Show; Katy Kendell and Hannah Hayes Ware, Reserve Grand Champions of the Mississippi Bred Division 5 Market Lamb Show, Reserve Champions of the Mississippi Bred Division 3 Market Lamb Show, Reserve Champions of the Division 5 Market Lamb Show and Reserve Grand Champions of the Division 3 Market Lamb Show; and Paxton and Mary-Hayden Blaylock, Reserve Champions of the Division 4 Market Lamb Show, participated in the sale.
