Ag Commissioner Applauds U.S.-U.K. Trade Deal

JACKSON, Miss. – Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce Andy Gipson issued the following statement regarding yesterday's announcement of a trade deal between the United States and the United Kingdom.

"I am very pleased to see the United States and the United Kingdom reach a historic trade deal, which will increase market access for American agricultural goods. This is a significant win for our farmers and ranchers and a first step in creating more opportunities in the global marketplace. With additional trade talks occurring with other nations, I expect this is only the first of many positive trade deals accomplished by President Donald J. Trump and the Trump Administration as they work to reset global trade and open new and expanded markets for American products."
