Miskelly Furniture to Announce Donation of Carousel as New Exhibit to the Mississippi Agriculture and Forestry Museum

JACKSON, Miss. – The media is invited to attend as Miskelly Furniture announces the donation of its carousel to the Mississippi Agriculture and Forestry Museum on Monday, October 19, at 2:30 p.m. Agriculture and Commerce Commissioner Andy Gipson will be joined by Oscar Miskelly of Miskelly Furniture and Hayes Patrick, Executive Director of the Mississippi Agriculture and Forestry Museum.

The large, antique carousel has been owned by Miskelly Furniture since 2004, when it was purchased from a theme park in Argentina. The carousel will be disassembled at the furniture store in Pearl and taken in pieces to the Mississippi Agriculture and Forestry Museum, where it will be reassembled on the grounds near the Children's Barnyard and Multipurpose Building.

The Mississippi Agriculture and Forestry Museum is a division of the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce, and currently includes 22 exhibits across 39 acres in Jackson.
