Ribbon Cutting Marks Grand Opening of New City Limits Café at Mississippi Farmers Market

JACKSON, Miss. – Mississippi Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce Andy Gipson will officially cut the ribbon to the new City Limits Café at the Farmers Market tomorrow, January 13, at 10:00 a.m. The café is located inside of the Mississippi Farmers Market at 929 High Street. The public is invited to attend.

The City Limits Café at the Farmers Market is owned and operated by Ralph and Missy Elmore. The café will offer cafeteria-style quick service food, as well as made-to-order options on the grill, to the public. The City Limits Café will be open each week Monday through Friday from 7:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. for breakfast and from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. for lunch.

The Mississippi Farmers Market, a division of the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce, is open every Saturday from 8:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. through January. Beginning February 6, the farmers market will open Saturdays from 8:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. For additional information about the Mississippi Farmers Market, visit www.msfarmersmarket.com, download the Mississippi Farmers Market mobile app, or visit Mississippi Farmers Market on Facebook.
