Dixie National Rodeo Announces Schedule Changes Due to Weather

JACKSON, Miss. - Due to the winter storm, the Tuesday, February 16, performance of the Dixie National Rodeo is being moved to Friday night, February 19, at 7:00 p.m. Frank Foster will provide the entertainment. Justin Moore, the previously scheduled entertainment for Tuesday, postponed until the 2022 Dixie National Rodeo.

Fans who cannot attend the event may request a refund at the point of purchase by the method of payment up until the new event performance time. As previously announced, the Monday night performance is rescheduled for Thursday night.

“Due to the weather, we adjusted the Dixie National Rodeo schedule. We appreciate our ticket holders being patient as we work through these necessary changes. This rodeo, produced by Harper & Morgan Rodeo Co., is a must-see event with participants from across the country, and we want to offer the public a second chance to see a world class rodeo,” said Agriculture Commissioner Andy Gipson.
